

COVID-19 Learning from Home

We delivered education packs to all of our pupils in the middle of April to give your children access to age-appropriate learning materials. For further guidance of how to support your child with their learning at home, click on the image below which will take you to the government website.

Department for Education

Guidance

Coronavirus (COVID 19): list of online education resources for home education

Published 7 April 2020