Promoting British Values

- We provide pupils with a broad general knowledge of, and promote respect for, public institutions and services
- We encourage pupils to become involved in decision-making processes and ensure they are listened to in school
- We hold elections so KS2 pupils learn how to argue and defend points of view
- We help pupils to express their views
- We model how perceived injustice can be peacefully challenged

- We ensure school rules and expectations are clear and fair
- We help pupils to distinguish right from wrong
- We include visits from the police in the curriculum
- We develop restorative justice approaches to resolve conflicts

- We support pupils to develop their self-knowledge, self-esteem and self-confidence
- We encourage pupils to take responsibility for their behaviour, as well as knowing their rights
- We actively challenge stereotypes
- We implement a strong anti-bullying culture

- We promote respect for individual differences
- We help pupils to acquire an understanding of, and respect for, their own and other cultures and ways of life
- We challenge prejudicial or discriminatory behaviour
- We organise visits to places of worship
- We develop links with faith communities
- We discuss differences between people, such as differences of faith, ethnicity, disability, etc
