A note from the Headteacher

Our 5 Ways to Wellbeing Day was a fantastic end to the school half term for our pupils today with lots of amazing activities going on within school and around our school grounds to enable our children to Give, Keep Learning, Be Active, Take Notice and Connect. Pupils took time to dance, sing, exercise, practise mindfulness, get close to nature, plant seeds, sketch and carry out wild challenges. Ask your child what they got up to today and encourage them to continue their wellbeing journey throughout the half term holiday and share their activities with their teacher when they return to school. We wish you all a safe and enjoyable break.

Lara Beaumont, Headteacher

CLUBS

Letters for Mr Sinkinson's after school clubs have been sent home. These start on Monday 20 February. Dance will continue after half term and fee letters will be sent w/c 20.2.23.

Breakfast Club

Breakfast Club children MUST arrive by 8.15am due to the earlier school day start and the office being closed until 8.30am. Children MUST NOT be left unsupervised while waiting.

THINKING DAY

Children from uniformed organisations Guides, Cubs, Scouts, Brownies and Brigade can wear their group uniform for World Thinking Day on Wednesday 22 February.

Our first set of Forest School students have fledged, having taken part in weekly sessions developing emotional and practical skills and connecting with nature. Supervised by fully trained Forest School Leaders, the group practised knot-tying, shelter-building, team games, using tools and fire-lighting and making smores during this last session. They have shown resilience and motivation during the sessions and shown increasing confidence and self-awareness. The children will be involved in the construction of the new Forest School/outdoor learning base next half-term and help us to shape the next set of Forest School sessions for our new set of learners.
