A note from the Headteacher

We have celebrated the forthcoming coronation of King Charles III in style today with all of our pupils wearing red, white and blue to mark the occasion. Creative activities have been taking place across school, some of which are pictured below. The PTA has given all children and staff a commemorative keepsake pin badge to mark the event, which is a lovely gesture. The lunchtime Coronation Party Dinner was a success, so thank you to the kitchen staff for their hard work. The Eco Committee's Coronation Garden Plan has also come to fruition. After receiving a number of ideas, displayed in the school corridor, Year 5 prepared the groundwork and every child in school was invited to plant a single plant today in our new flowerbed designed in the shape of the Union flag. Under normal circumstances, we wouldn't wish for rain on a Bank Holiday, but maybe a little to water our plants. Whatever the weather, enjoy your Bank Holiday Weekend on this historic occasion.
